THE October 1907 Term has now begun and No. 1, U. S. Advance Sheets will be issued December First. Enter your subscription now if you are not on the list.

Improvements this year will greatly add to the value of these advance sheets,—chief of which will be

A Cumulative Index in each number, indexing all the cases decided up to that point; also

A Cumulative Alphabetical Table of Cases in each number.

Don't rely on your daily paper for your report of the decisions of the highest court in the land or wait for the publication of bound books.

Do you know that 60 per cent of the cases in the U. S. Supreme Court come directly from State Courts? Also that a considerable additional percentage of cases from the U. S. Circuit and Circuit Appellate Courts involve no Federal questions, but are in the U. S. Courts because the parties are residents of different States?

Therefore, at least 75 per cent of the cases in the U. S. Supreme Court are not Federal matters at all, but one questions of interest to you in your every-day, state court practice.

For further evidence on this point, take down any volume of your State Reports and you will see that, except its own decisions, your highest court cites the U. S. Supreme Court oftener than any other court.

You ought to let us quote you our "Twentieth Century Edition" of the U. S. Supreme Court Reports, containing, without extra cost, all of Rose's Notes, making 12,000 additional pages of most valuable text work.

In any case send in your subscription at once to the Advance Sheets at $2.00. Published Semi-Monthly during the term of the Court.

American Law Schools

2,500 pages. Bound in cloth. Subscription price for the set, $12.00 . . . . .*

Vol. I. now ready; Vol. II. ready in 1908; Vol. III. ready in 1909

The volumes include Essays on almost all of the main subjects of law, covering also the general field of "Sources of the Law," "Law Reform," and "Colonial Law," and form substantially a supplement to Pollock & Maitland's "History of the English Law before the Time of Edward I." The wealth of material by writers of eminence and deep research, gathered in these volumes, and heretofore scattered in comparatively inaccessible volumes of periodicals, possesses a value which can hardly be overestimated.

The contributors to the three volumes include: Sir Frederick Pollock, Bart.; Hon. James Bryce, the late Frederic W. Maitland, Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.; the late Christopher C. Langdell of the Harvard University Law School, Charles McLean Andrews of Johns Hopkins University, John F. Dillon, Esq.; Prof. Heinrich Brunner of Berlin, Germany; the late James Bradley Thayer, Edward Jenks, Esq., of London; John Henry Wigmore, author of Wigmore on Evidence; Prof. James Barr Ames of the Harvard Law School, William Searle Holdsworth of St. John's College, Oxford, Eng.; Prof. Melville M. Bigelow of the Boston University Law School, Prof. Paul Samuel Reinsch, State University, Madison, Wis.; Prof. Joseph Henry Beale, jr., of the Harvard Law School; the late Sir James Fitzjames Stephens of London, Prof. Francis M. Burdick of Columbia University Law School, Prof. Samuel Williston of the Harvard Law School, Spencer Broadhurst, Esq., of London; Dr. Harold Dexter Hazeltine, Emmanuel College, England; Prof. John William Salmond of Victoria University College, Wellington, New Zealand; Edward Wyndham Hulme of the Library of the Patent Office, London; Prof. William Reynolds Vance of George Washington University, Washington, D. C.; Prof. Charles McGuffey Hepburn of the Indiana University Law School, and many others.

The committee to make the selection and prepare the volumes for publication consists of Professors Ernst Freund of the University of Chicago, William E. Mikkell of the University of Pennsylvania, and John H. Wigmore of Northwestern University (Chairman).

It turns days, weeks and months of search into hours—

It guards against failure of proof—

It won't allow your opponent to introduce illegal evidence.

Is it Worth While to spend days and weeks preparing each case for trial, when the "Encyclopædia of Evidence" contains an exhaustive brief on all causes of action showing the method of proof, what is admissible, what to prove and how to prove it?

Is it Worth While to spend months on your pleadings, finally go to trial and fail on your proofs or allow your opponent to introduce illegal evidence?

Is it Worth While to work and worry over text books to find a few cases only, when we give you ALL the cases—15,000 to 20,000 in each volume?

Is it Worth While to jeopardise your client's interests and your own reputation by going to trial, relying on the FEW cases found in text books, without first having examined EVERY CASE bearing on all the questions involved?

Is it Worth While to try to practice law in this, the twentieth century, an age of case law, without the "Encyclopædia of Evidence?"
